THE BEST OF...
The Classics

Little Women by Louise May Alcott
The story of 4 sisters. A much loved classic and, while some of its issues seem outdated, many of the trials of the sisters are all too relevant today.

Ballet Shoes by Noel Streatfeild
3 orphans help out their new family by joining a Dancing School. But when they vow to make a name for themselves, they have no idea that it's going to be such hard work!

The Call of the Wild by Jack London
Dragged away to be a sledge dog in the harsh and freezing cold Yukon, Buck must fight for his survival.

Black Beauty by Anna Sewell
Its message is universal and timeless: animals will serve humans well if they are treated well. While promoting animal welfare, Black Beauty also teaches how to treat people with kindness, sympathy, and respect.

20,000 Leagues Under the Sea by various
When an unidentified “monster” threatens international shipping, an expedition is organized to hunt down and destroy the menace.

The Secret Garden by Frances Hodgson Burnett
What secrets lie behind the doors at Misselthwaite Manor? A lovely story about the power of positive thought and how easy it is to succumb to negativity in this world.

Other authors worth mentioning...
Jane Austen
Charles Dickens
Emily Bronte
Anne Bronte
Charlotte Bronte
Alexandre Dumas
E Nesbit
Mark Twain
H.G. Wells